

LISBOAN Award for Outstanding Research on the Lisbon Treaty

Call for Applications

The LISBOAN Erasmus Academic Network (<http://www.lisboan.net>) calls for applications for its research award. The award distinguishes an excellent piece of work of a researcher in the field of European integration, that

- contributed substantially to the state of the art of research on the Treaty of Lisbon and its implementation, and/or
- has influenced academic and political debates on the Treaty of Lisbon in Europe.

The award is endowed with 1.500 €. The public presentation will take place in the framework of the Third LISBOAN annual conference on June 7th, 2013 in Brussels.

The rewarded work will be an article published either online, in a journal or in a book. Monographs by a single author or co-authored by a maximum of three authors will also be considered. Unpublished papers may be submitted but preference will be given to published work. The language of the work should be English. There are no restrictions in terms of national or geographical origin of the nominee. Disciplines covered by the award include especially – but not exclusively – history, law, economics or social sciences. LISBOAN accepts both direct applications and nominations through third parties.

Application Deadline 5/04/2013

Please send the application including a copy of the respective work, an academic CV (including publications) and a short cover letter by 5/04/2013 preferably via e-mail to Tobias KUNSTEIN (tobias.kunstein\(a\)uni-koeln.deuni-koeln.de)).

LISBOAN (Linking Interdisciplinary Integration Studies by Broadening the European Network) is a network of 68 European institutions funded under the European Union's Lifelong Learning Programme. It deals with teaching and research on EU integration studies in general and the Treaty of Lisbon in particular. Through a number of activities, the network aims at strengthening cooperation between institutions of higher education and research in Europe. It enhances research-based teaching, spreads innovative approaches and establishes best practices in teaching the Lisbon treaty.
