

LISBOAN Award for Outstanding Teaching on the Treaty of Lisbon

Call for Applications

The LISBOAN Erasmus Academic Network (<http://www.lisboan.net>) calls for applications for its teaching award. The award distinguishes the work of a person with an outstanding academic record in the field of European integration, who has

- developed and/or used innovative means of teaching the Treaty of Lisbon, and/or
- enhanced the visibility of EU studies and in particular studies of the Lisbon Treaty as a subject among wider parts of academia, practitioners and the interested public, and/or
- linked research and teaching on the Lisbon Treaty in an exemplary manner.

The award is endowed with 1.500 €. The public presentation will take place in the framework of the Third LISBOAN annual conference on June 7th, 2013 in Brussels.

The rewarded work may be innovative teaching methods (e.g. simulation courses), innovative contents of teaching (e.g. across disciplines) or innovative instruments of teaching (e.g. virtual teaching). Disciplines covered by the award include especially – but not exclusively – history, law, economics and social sciences.

Application Deadline 5/04/2013

Please send the application, including a short cover letter, an academic CV (including publications) and a set of samples illustrating the teaching means, by 5/04/2013 preferably via e-mail to Tobias KUNSTEIN (tobias.kunstein\(a\)uni-koeln.deuni-koeln.de)). The language of the application dossier should be English. The samples illustrating the teaching means should be in an official language of the European Union.

Chair of the selection committee: Prof. Dr. Lenka Rovna, Charles University Prague, CZ

LISBOAN (Linking Interdisciplinary Integration Studies by Broadening the European Network) is a network of 68 European institutions dealing with teaching and research on EU integration studies in general and the Treaty of Lisbon in particular. Through a number of activities, the network aims at strengthening cooperation between institutions of higher education and research in Europe. It enhances research-based teaching, spreads innovative approaches and establishes best practices in teaching the Lisbon treaty. In order to bridge boundaries between scientific disciplines, the network includes political scientists, historians, lawyers and economists.
